

2010 til today

advice to institutions and companies towards the issues related to G4-guidelines of the Global Reporting Initiative (G4-GRI), strategic consulting, climatechangenow.world

01/2009

award of the honorary professorship for economic psychology and financial market analysis, Chatham House London, the Royal Institute of International Affairs

09/2006 – 12/2009

chairman of the research group about the influence and impact of global sustainability on economy and financial markets, in cooperation with the Energy, Environment and Resources Programme (EER), Chatham House London

09/2006 – 12/2009

adviser to the Ministry of Environment, Energy and Climate Change (MEECC), Athens

06/2003 – 12/2013

private consultant to former Chancellor Helmut Schmidt, at the time editor of DIE ZEIT, with focus on climate change and sustainability

04/2003

foundation of Apla Editions, publishing company, Kyklades, Greece

05/2001 – 12/2004

chairman of the expert advisory board to the Greek government, in order to achieve sustainability of the Olympic Summer Games, Athens 2004

02/2001 – 12/2007

special representative for environmental protection and recycling at the region of South Aegean, Kyklades Greece

05/1999 – 05/2001

lecturer for online media design
Comedia Bern and IG Mac, Zürich

09/1996 – 11/1998

strategic adviser to Greenpeace, observer at the World Climate Summit, Kyoto 1997

04/1996

Foundation of Kyklos GmbH, Zürich, media and design, kuklos.tv

01/1992 – 12/1995

public relations and communication consultant

03/1987 – 07/1991

HSB Zürich, advertising, conception and copywriting

09/1981 – 10/1986

law, psychology and german studies at the University of Zürich

04/1975 – 09/1981

Realgymnasium Rämibühl, Zürich

personally

He was born in 1962 in Nürnberg, Germany, grown up since 1964 in Männedorf, Herrliberg and Zollikon, nationality CH/DE. He's married and has one child, born in 2018. He speaks German, English and Greek.